SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS NOTICE.

ONE-PRICE STORE DRY GOODS.

Side band suitings, closing price, 7c

Outing cloths in beautiful patterns at 8 aud 10c a yard. Flannelettes in new and stylish patterns at 12½c a yard.

Dress ginghams, 5, 8 and 10ca yard pieces of Scotch ginghams at h 25c a yard ew challies at 4c and 61c a so a few more pieces of checked

Mohairs in all shades at 25, 37} and White goods in all the newest materials and at lowest prices.

A special bargain in pure Turkey red table covers, 8-4, 75c and 8 10 8746

Table linens, towels and napkins in endless variety, and at prices the defy competition.

Another case of white bed quilts at Ladies' and Gents' underwear and hosjery in great assortment and at Large stock of bleached and unbleached cottons and slicetings in all widths.

Childrens white lace hats and caps

Fans, Fans, Fans, from 2c up-

SNYDER.

134 SALEM AVENUE, S. W.,

OKE, - - - VIRGINIA.

STATT and RIVES.

REAL ESTATE Agt's

105 JEFFERSON STREET,

Roanoke, Va.,

OFFER THE FOLLOWING

CHOICE PROPERTIES

199 ft. on Albermarle Street .. $1,900 60 ft. on Franklin Road. 2,206 A Choice Cor. on Mountain St. . 3,000 100 ft.on Boanoke St. (fine shade) 5,000 Fine Residence on Jefferson St. 9,500

A rare bargain in an entirely new residence in Hyde Park. House contains Hot and Cold Water, Stable, Coal and Wood House. Will make terms to suit purchaser.

We have the cheapest business and residence properties in the city.

Correspondence solicited

ROANOKE.

E. H. STEWART, President. H. G. COLE, Sec. and Treas.

J. F. BARBOUR, Gen'l Manager. CONTRACTORS & BUILDERS

Office with GRAY & BOSWELL, Jef-

Large Brick Buildings a Specialty.

Homes built on easy payments. Pat ronage solicited. Estimates cheerfully furnished on application.

J. F. BARBOUR. GENERAL MANAGER.

I will offer my entire stock of

AND SHOES AT

PRIME COST TO DISCONTINUE

F. G. MAY

112 FIRST AVENUE, S. W.

AT COST. AT COST.

WM, F. BAKER. WM. H. MARKLEY

DAKER & MARKLEY

Real Estate Agents Have removed to 160 Salem Avenue

ROANOKE, VIRGINIA.

City Property, Farms and Mineral Lands sold. Correspondence ap3-tf Solicited.

H. M. LINNEY & SON

REAL ESTATE AGENCY.

For Sale.

Twelve Store-Houses, on Salem Avenue. Ten Building Lots on Campbell Street. LOTS ON THE WEST END BOULE-VARD

rom $600 to $1,500. In Bellmont, from $400 to $500.

A GOOD PLACE TO INVEST. Near the College Institute from $300 to $400.

CALL EARLY AND SEE

THE LATEST NOVELTIES

IN

MILLINERY AND CLOAKS

Ever before seen in Roanoke.

Ladies' and Childrens' Furnishings.

K. & S. Millinery & Cloak Palace,

135 Salem Ave.

TO CALL AT

Blount's Diamond Front

GROCERY

AND GET

2 Cakes Laundry Soap

For 5 Cents.

C. F. BLOUNT.

OYSTERS

STEAMED OYSTERS

In addition, we have the finest

Pool and Billiard Parlor

in the State.

Ladies' and Gents' Dining

Rooms up stairs.

OPEN ALL NIGHT.

Chas. J. Ormsby,

L. F. BURKS,

Practical Plumber

GAS and STEAM FITTER.

And dealer in all kinds of Plumber,

Gas and Steam Fitters' Supplies. Prompt Attention to Orders, and Satisfaction Guaranteed.

715 Main Street, LY CHBURG, VA.

Proprietor.

FOANOKE, VA

A ROUSING MEETING AT SALEM-

ARE

Too Busy

To write up their daily their

FALL STOCK

DRESS GOODS

Etc., Etc., Etc.

the Echoes at the Old County Seat
With a Rousing Democratic Speech
Against the Force Bill.

We have under the present system grown to be a great nation. We have up to this time solved the problem of a great and free people. I trust in the providence of God we should not

Hon. Paul C. Edmunds, the Demo cratic candidate for Congress in this district, addressed a large and enthusiastic meeting in the Town Hall in Salem yesterday afternoon. Mr. Edmunds stopped over in Roanoke Sunday night and arrived in Salem yesterday morning, at 10'clock, when introduced by Colonel Robert Logan, a large audience and continued applause greeted the faithful Representative and Democratic standard-They are receiving

> The present tariff, with some slight changes, was adopted in time of war to meet war expenses, and to be only temporary. At the close of the war the interest-bearing debt of the School-Miss Gilmer's Academy. United States was over two billions. Of this more than one half has been paid. The annual interest has been reduced from $144,000,000 to $44,000,000 Still the war tax remains, and the people beg in vain for relief. Year after year promises have been made that taxes should be reduced, but the promise has been broken as often as

In 1850 the average tariff rate was 27 per cent., and in 1857 it had been reduced to a little over 18 per cent. Between 1862 and 1866 it was raised to over 41, but in 1885 after a commission H. and M. T. Byrne. The building is had been appointed by Congress, well furnished and well lighted, makper cent., the average rate was increased to nearly 43 per cent. In 1885 Mrs. Gilmer's school for young latit went to over 47 per cent., and there it has remained. The McKinley bill, as it passed the House, increased baye engaged for their term have not

The person legislation of this sestion of Congress is without a parallel.

There was a slight increase in the sion of Congress is without a parallel in the history of the world. It is estimated that the cost of pensions for yesterday. The enrollment of the 1891 will reach the enormous sum of $200,000,000. This is more than twice ance of fifty-two more than the seatthe amount paid for military pensions 42 Salem Ave., S. W. by all the civilized countries of the world, and more than twice the entire cost of the German army. It is more than the entire cost of the Federal Government for any year, preceding the war. The pension cost is $3 per head for each man, woman and child

With the obnoxious tarilitaxes, the South pays a large part of the pension money, and all of it is distributed in the North.

A free government cannot long be

A free government cannot long be maintained when the wealth is concentrated, for the concentration of wealth means the concentration of ical power of a country is concentrated, the freedom takes flight This is the history of the world.

bills ever passed by Congress. Its provisions are despotic and desperate. It is worse than the force bill so gall atly opposed and defeated by Samuel J. Randall and his associates in the Forty-first Congress. This is the result of greed for office and the desire to perpetuate the Republican party in Never before has a Republican majority so openly and baldly attempted to subject the rights of the States, and the liberties of the people.

This bill changes the methods of clection which the people have been accustomed to since the days of Adams, Jefferson and Jackson. It sets aside the rights of the States, which have been sanctioned by a Services were conducted in the Odd century usage. There will not only Fellows' hall Sunday evening by Mr. be a Federal control of the election of members of Congress and President and Wire president but eventually the same power will control the election of State and county officials. Revolutions never go backward. More clumpes and energy and ene changes and encreachments will come is no rabbi in Roanoke.

Federal court. Eight out of ten of the judges are Republicans. Their appointments are purely political. In the South, where this law is to be enforced, it is well known that the judges are bitter and unscrupulous partisans, who will embrace every opportunity given to them by this bill to select a class of men who will use the office for political purposes to count out Democrats and count in Republicars, and deprive the people of their fairly elected representatives. The supervisors hold office for life, are consulting Congress, and they are to be paid without consulting Congress, and no limit is fixed to the aggregate

The promoters of this bill know that nine out of ten of the chief supervisors will be Republicans if the bill becomes a law. They will appoint three supervisors for each voting precinct, and it is absolutely certain that two out of the three will be Republicans, who will have complete control of the board. There are also to be appointed at each precinct in the same and friends to be tried by partisan judges and by packed juries.

There is now peace within our borTIMES office; 20 cents per 100.

ON THE STUMP, ders. This bill will re-open the old OLD JOHN BROWN has taken our people a quarter of a

HON. PAUL C. EDMUNDS FACES
HIS CONSTITUENTS.
HIS CONSTITUENTS. and all this will stop. Why should the present plan of voting, why should the time-honored methods of holding elections, be interfered with?

We have under the present system The Deed of a Fanatic and its Terrible determined to take Brown. This was

> As a gentleman remarked to the reporter after the speaking the Congressman completely captured the town. If there were any doubts that he would poll a big vote in Salem they were dispelled.

hour and a half Senator J. N. Stubbs. ot Gloucester county, followed in a speech of more than an hour in his usually witty and humorous style.
The good jokes brought down the house and Salem people will always The audience filled the hall and gave turn out hereafter when he is booked for a speech. The outlook for the bearer of the Sixth. A TIMES reporter was there and below is furnished a large part of Mr. Edmund's speech, which was received with evident interest and frequent applause.

Taking up the tariff first, he said:

The present tariff with some slight.

The present tariff with some slight.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Roanoke's private schools opened yesterday, all of them with encour-aging prospects. At the Catholic parochial school thirty-six pupils were enrolled. The building will comfortably accommodate many more. The school opened last year with fifty pupils, soon increasing to a regular attendance of about seventy-than usual on account of the incle-ment weather, and many more are Between 1862 and 1866 it was raised to expected to enter in the next few 40 per cent. In 1883 it was a little days. The school is in charge of Misses which recommended a reduction of 25 ing it very comfortable for school have engaged for their term have not ing capacity of the building.

HE KNEW HIM.

An Old-Time Darkey's Rebuke to

Among the passengers in the smoking car of the incoming train on the During the last year of Mr. Cleve-land's administration the pensions amounted to a little over $80.000,000. With the obnoxious tariff taxes, the South pays a large part of the pensions of the pensions of the pensions one an old-time darkey—one of the old issue, pullet respectful—the south pays a large part of the pensions of the pe

I would not like to live in the country. I am from Philadelphia, and was never in the country before—the borned in de country, and when you gets to Roanoke, if you libs dat long, you will be in town fur de fust time in yoh life."

A great laughter greeted this sally; the dude slunk into the corner and remained quiet until the train pulled into Roanoke.

ROSH HASHANAH, Impressive Ceremonies Conducted by

Rabbi Rosenburg. Yesterday was Rosh Hashanah, or New Year's Day, with the Hebrews and was celebrated with due solemnity by the Israelites. All their places of business were closed until 6:30 last night. Services were conducted in the Odd changes and encroachments will come and the future will be filled with problems, difficulties and outrages directly traceably to this bill.

The bill provides for the appointment of a chief supervisor for each of the seventy judicial districts of the United States by the judge of the Federal court. Eight out of ten of the commence of the law of the l

Two Land Companies Organized to Invest in that Town's Rising Dirt.

The following companies were or ganized at the office of Francis B. Kemp & Co. last night for the purpose of investing in Buchanan, as soon as the Central City Land Company puts its lots on the market: supervisors hold office for life, are amenable to no one, and are autocrats in their respective districts. These supervisors appoint three other supervisors for each precinct, and they have power to increase the number of election officers at will without consulting Congress, and they are to pointed at each precinct in the same way, three canvassers, who are to can vass and certify the returns of the voting. Deputy marshals are to be appointed, without limit as to number, to attend upon the registration. The bill authorizes these Federal officers to make a house-to-house canvass throughout each district. The doors must be flung wide open to these partisan spies. No longer is the good old Angle-Saxon doctrine that a man's house is his castle to be regarded.

McConnell, of the Roanoke Machine way, three canvassers, who are to can who are to can was throw against the Roanoke Machine way, three canvassers, who are to can works, and each district of the rection of an electric and they shot him. He died in great agony the following day.

When the morning dawned the employees at the armory and rifle works, then the morning dawned the employees at the armory and rifle works, turned in from any of the shops and sounded in a second's time at the Fire Department. While the buildings are fire-proof, there is much inflammable material always lying around.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 15.—Nearly works and they shot him. He died in great agony the following day.

When the morning dawned the employees at the armory and rifle works, then the morning dawned the employees at the armory and rifle works, then the morning dawned the employees at the armory and rifle works, then the morning dawned the employees at the armory and rifle works, then the morning dawned the employees at the armory and rifle works, then the morning dawned the employees at the armory and rifle works, then the morning dawned the employees at the armory and rifle works, then the morning dawned the employees at the armory and rifle works, then the morning dawned the employees at the armory and rifle works, and they shot him. He died in great agony the following day.

When the morning dawned the employees at the armory and rifle works, and they shot him. He died in great agony the following day.

When the morning dawned the employees at the armory and ri

FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE VIGILANTS

neat and attractive hall last night by Rev. Dr. W. C. Campbell, of the First Presbyterian Church. The subject was "John Brown at Harper's Ferry," low him if they desired. His condia familiar topic, but one invested with peculiar interest by the personal researches of the lecturer during his residence at Harper's Ferry.

wars of modern days. The wavelet this the door yielded and a space that lapped itself on the banks of large enough to admit a man was that lapped itself on the banks of the Potomac at Harper's Ferry did not subside until it had billowed the land with 600,000 graves. It saw arapies numbering 1,700,000 men mustered and armed. It saw an expenditure of land armed. It saw an expenditure of second with a debt of $2,800,000,000.

This gave to the work of John Brown and significance it might never have last small sword in hand, he sprang furnace of the property of the street was a significance it might never have last small sword in hand, he sprang furnace of the property of the property of the street was as example and the fire had made considerable headway when they arrived. The "old Cabell House," one of the oldest buildings in the city, under which were the stores of Larken, Lewis & Jennings, and Craft, was a significance it might never have his small sword in hand, he sprang furnace of the might never have head was a raging hand, he sprang furnace of the made considerable headway when they arrived. The "old Cabell House," one of the oldest buildings in the city, under which were the stores of Larken, Lewis & Jennings, and Craft, was a significance it might never have head was a raging hand, he sprang furnace of the opening was nament, and the fire had made considerable headway when they arrived.

The "old Cabell House," one of the oldest buildings in the city, under which was to enter, and the squad which was to enter. As soon as the opening was nament, and the fire had made considerable headway when they arrived.

The "old Cabell House," one of the oldest buildings in the city, under which was to enter. As soon as the opening was named at the squad which was to enter. As soon as the opening was named and the squad which was to enter. As soon as the opening was named and the squad which was to enter. As soon as the opening was named at the squad which was to enter. As soon as the opening was named at the squad which was to enter. As soon as the opening was named at the squad which was to enter. As soon as the opening was named at the squad which Brown had nursed his plan for twenty years. He began to put it into operation the 3rd of July, 1859. On this day he was seen for the first time near Harper's Ferry. He came accompanied by his two sons and son in-law, Oliver and Watson, and Jeremiah Anderson. He gave their names as J. Smith and sons. They passed among the people with whom they lived as cattle dealers and prospectors for ores.

About the 10th of July they rented a small farm, five miles from Harper's Ferry on the west side of the mountain on what is known as Sample's Manor. Here he collected his men, Acoust the following of the mountain on what is known as Sample's Manor. Here he collected his men, and gathered his arms and military stores. The three months passed here were spent in fixing up his arms and in travelling about over the adjoining States preparing the minds of the negroes for his coming. He had announced his plan of operations to a convention called at his request. Confederate Veteraus Meet, Greet and conventions along the mean of the mountain fleeing, two of whom were subsequently captured and hung, and the rest were prisoners.

A GRAND REUNION.

The whole thing was over in a few moments.

This ended the tragedy. Of the was and the child slightly.

A colored emplo e of the Western Union office had his leg broken in falling from the ladder, while he was also assisting in the rescue of the litter than the child. The telegraph office was completely gutted, and it will be several days before they will be in shaye for the full transaction of business. Larkin's steck of dry goods was almost totally destroyed. Craft's negroes for his coming.

nounced his plan of operations to a convention called at his request, nearly a year before at Chatham,
Canada West. In this convention he stated that he had been considering wenty years.

He stated that the line of moun tains running through Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina and into Georgia, was full of natural fortifications in which a few men might de-fend themselves against larger bodies. He supposed that as soon as his intention was made known that all the slaves in the South would immediately flock to him, together with al the free negroes, North and South, and that a large portion of the white wealth means the concentration of political power, and when the political power of a country is concentrated, the freedom takes flight This is the history of the world.

The Force bill, that passed the House, is one of the most dangerous the first one of the most dangerous that the first one of the most dangerous that the first one of the most dangerous that the first one of the most dangerous the first one of the most dangerous that the first one of the most dangerous the first one of the most dangerous that the first one of the most dangerous that the first one of the most dangerous the first one of the will have a grand sight to see the laboring population in the South would also come. These were to be forgotten. The old comrades shaking hands and talking of the days never to be forgotten. There will be a grand display of firefore the regular troops would be met. All slave holders who resisted were to be forgotten. There will be a grand display of firefore the regular troops would be met. All slave holders who resisted were to be forgotten. The burnt section in the South would also come. These were to be forgotten. The burnt section of a country is concentration of the withing population in the South would also come. These were to be forgotten. The burnt section of a country is concentrated to the first one of the wind and that a large portion in the South would also come. The sum and that a large portion in the South would also come. The server to be forgotten. The burnt section of a country is concentrated. be taken and held as hostages and their property confiscated. Those who did not resist were to be protected.

He came to Virginia first because it had fewer slaves than any other Southern State, and because resist-ance would probably be greater there than elsewhere. He came to Harper's hold it for better I Ferry because it had located in it a absorbing interest. government establishment for the manufacture of arms and an arsenal. in which, at that time, were stored 80,000 stand of the most improved

On the night of the 16th of October, 1859, he started with his men from their home on the mountain to the Ferry. At this time he had twenty-two men, including himself. Of these seventeen were whites and and the other five were negroes. He took nineteen men with him leaving Owen, his son, Frank Merriam and Barelay Coppic to guard their things until they could be sent for. They reached the Ferry between 11 and 12 o'clock at night. was asleep except the solitary watch-men who guarded the property of the baltimore and Obio railway and the property of the government and the rifle works.

The bridge watchman was quietly Horn of the Widder, which was done in commemoration of the law of Moses on Mount Sinai.

FOR THE GOOD OF BUCHANAN. man, which was refused. They at once arrested him and broke open the gate. Two others were sent across the same and the watchgate. Two others were sent across

All this was very quietly done, but it was not long until the tragely began. The first person killed by burne, Jr.

Arcadia Investment Company, capital stock $50,000.—S. W. Jamison, president; F. B. Kemp, vice-president; L. E. Evans, secretary; C. A. Moomaw, treasurer. Directors—S. W. Jamison, E. B. Kemp, C. A. Moomaw, J. A. Jamison, Michael Sexton.

Analysis of the first person killed by Brown's men was an innocent and inoffensive colored man, a porter at the hotel. He, while waiting for the incoming train, due about 1 o'clock, heard a noise on the railroad bridge and going out the railroad bridge and going out the railroad bridge and going out of the railroad bridge and going out the railroad bridge and going o Assistant Superintendent G. R. Henderson and Foreman James A. McConnell, of the Roanoke Machine Works, have shown great ingenuity and considerable knowledge of electricity in the prection of an electric superintendent of the bors wanted to play a trick upon him, and instead of halting, he ran, and they shot him. He died in great a converte following day.

spies. No longer is the good old Angle-Saxon doctrine that a man's house is his castle to be regarded.

Hettle Bernard Chase, supported its purposes are wholly partisan, and emanated from a handful of politicians, whose soul's desire is to perpetuate themselves in power, though it be necessary to revolutionize the Government, and take from the people the last vestige of their rights.

This bill authorizes Federal officers to acrest Demogrations or other persons if they see fit to accuse them of political officers and friends to be tried by partisan, and rights and political officers to acrest Demogratisor other persons if they see fit to accuse them of political officers, and dright they are also out on the street acresting all whom they could find, and pat them in the armory yard. Brown's men were also out on the street acresting all whom they could find, and pat them in the armory yard. Brown's men were also out on the street acresting all whom they could find, and pat them in the armory yard. Brown's men were also out on the street acresting all whom they could find, and pat them in the armory yard. Brown's men were also out on the street acresting all whom they could find, and pat them in the armory yard. Brown's men were also out on the streets acresting all whom they could find, and pat them in the armory yard. Brown's men were also out on the streets acresting all whom they could file w prisoners, seven were on the mountain and the rest were with him. During the day, when he discovered that the chances were against him, he went to the watch house and selected nine of the most prominent citizens, whom he took with him luto the engine-house, to hold as hostages. By this time he was entirely surrounded. On Tuesday night a company of marines, under the command of Col. R. E. Lee, arrived from Washington. Early on Wednesday, morning it was Results—A Graphic History Gather a delicate task, as it might endanger ed from Eye-Witnesses and Participants in the Fighting at the Ferry.

Lieut. J. E. B. Stuart was sent with a flag of truce to demand his surrender. Brown demanded as the conditions The lecture course of the Vigilant that he should be permitted to march out with his arms and his prisoners as far as the locks of the canal, three quarters of a mile above the lerry. He promised to release his prisoners at that point, and said they could fol-

The marinesthen began to prepare to take him by assault. The com-pany was drawn up behind an angle of the engine house wall, and two stalwart fellows with sledge hammers were sent to break down the doors. said:

This event might have been permitted to sink into oblivion, as many another had done, had it not been the precursor of one of the most terrible and used it as a battering ram. To This gave to the work of John Brown dreene was so exasperated that with perfect tinder-box, and was a raging a significance it might never have had.

Brown had nursed his plan for lunge at Brown with his sword, and third floors were occupied by twenty years. He began to put it thought he had run it through him, families, and it was with difficulty to the significance of the perfect tinder-box, and was a raging his significance it might never have had a larm was turned in. The second and third floors were occupied by families, and it was with difficulty to the perfect tinder-box, and was a raging his significance it might never have had a larm was turned in. The second and third floors were occupied by families, and it was with difficulty to the perfect tinder-box, and was a raging his significance it might never have had.

Confederate Veteraus Meet, Greet and RICHLANDS, Va., Sept. 15 .- The first the matter of freeing the slaves for day of the Confederate Veterans' reunion of Southwest Virginia came off today. Over eight hundred vet- two-thirds.

The Alabama Farmers' Alliance Holding for High Prices. MONTGOMERY, Ala., Sept. 15 .- The Farmers' Alliance scheme to corner sending about circulars arging members to stand together.

Mousse Bey Recaptured. CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 15 .- Moussa Extensive preparations are going on for the fall exhibition of the industrial society. The sham battle on form custody some time ago, has been captured near Prussia. He broke one of his legs attempting to broke one of his legs attempting to escape from the police.

Racing Yesterday

GUTTENBERG. ond, Marty B third; time 1:04. Second race, three-Tourths of a mile-Fearless the street to seize the arsenal, which they did. Kagi, their secretary of war, was sent a half mile up the Shenandoah river to seize the rifle works located there. Cook, who had provided the second, who had consider the second that the second the second the second the second that the second the second that the second the second the second that the second the second the second that the second the second that the second that the second the second that the second the second that the second works located there. Cook, who had lived for some time in and near Harper's Ferry, having taught school there and was well known, was sent with five others into the country to arrest Colonel Washington, and bring him to Brown. He did so and also brought his four-horse wagon and horses and his carriage and all of his slaves they could find.

All this was very quietly done, but Baseball Yesterday. National League-Cleveland, S; Pitts-burg, 3; Chicago, 6; Cincinnati, 3. Players' League-First game-Cleve-land, 6; Pittsburg, 2; Chicago, 9; Butfalo, 4. Second game—Chicago, 7; But-Buffalo, 3.

American Association—Columbus, 3; St. Louis, 2; Rochester, 6; Syracuse, 0; Toledo, 5; Louisville, 6.

THE LOSS FOOTS UP

-Rev. Sam Jones Opposed to ball and Buggy Rides-The trial Exposition-News Item

most destructive fires that has visite this city for many years occurred by night during a heavy rain storm. It occurred in the rear of the Western Union telegraph office, near the corner of Main and Seventh streets, about 10 o'clock, and before it was gotten under control wiped out three large buildings occupied by a half dozen mercantile firms: T. N. Larkin, the closest attention. Dr. Campbell The doors yielded to their ponderous dry goods; C. T. Craft, cigars; Lewis & Jennings, groceries; E. Crump, dry goods, and badly damaged F. A. Kinckle's big boot and shoe establish-

> There was some trouble about the alarm, which delayed the fire depart-was almost totally destroyed, Craft's cigar store wiped out, Crump's, and Kinkle's establishments badly damaged. The loss—buildings and stock -is between $50,000 and $75,000, on which there is insurance for about erans and strangers are in the city.

Speeches were made by General T. L.

Rosser, Hon. John W. Spotts and Rosser, Hon. John W. Spotts and others.

The extensive barbeaeue was very lost $600 in cash, which he had in much enjoyed. Business was general extend. The poor families in the ly suspended and everybody turned subscription in aid of them has been out to give the old veterans a good started. The origin of the fire is untime. It was a grand sight to see the known. It started in the cellar old comrades shaking hands and talkgelist, commenced a series of meetings here on Saturday. The services are held in Pace's warehouse, which has been arranged to afford seating capacity for about 5,000 people. This is his second visit, but interest in him does not seem to have abated, and he the cotton crop of the South and hold it for better prices is exciting absorbing interest.

Tolegrams received yesterday from four or five of the biggest cotton producing counties in the State are to the effect that nearly all the crop is being held on the farms, and very little is finding its way to market. The Farmers' Alliance leaders are leading about directlears are in the state are to the effect that nearly all the crop is being held on the farms, and very little is finding its way to market. The Farmers' Alliance leaders are who played baseball and neglectly such as the same of the words who laugh at his jokes and shed tears over the pathetic incidents related by him. But little new has been said by him so far. He is as severe as ever on the liquor traffic, dancing and baseball. His slap at baseball was especially severe. If never knew, he said, of a man or boy who was fond of baseball who was worth the powder and shot required to kill him. There we are said by him so far. He is as severe as ever on the liquor traffic, dancing and baseball. His slap at baseball was especially severe. If never knew, he said, of a man or boy who was fond of baseball who was worth the powder and shot required to kill him. There we have a bated, and he "draws" big crowds who laugh at his jokes and shed tears over the pathetic incidents related by him. But little new has been said by him so far. He is as severe as ever on the liquor traffic, dancing and baseball. His slap at baseball was especially severe. If never knew, he said, of a man or boy who was fond of baseball who was worth the powder and shot required to kill him. There we have been said by him so far. He is as severe as ever on the liquor traffic, dancing and baseball. His slap at baseball was especially severe. If never knew, he said, of a man or boy who was fond of baseball who was worth the powder and shot required to kill him. who played baseball and need this family so, his father-in-lab and to go at and support the cuss' wife."
How did this strike the Young Men's Christian Association Fats and sale of a land company will take A number of society ladies have met together and divided the city into five different sections, with a recep-tion or "at home" day for each.

Our "country cousins" are now paying back their city cousins for their summer visitation. They are here in droves from "Hat Creek," "Possum Hollow," and other rural districts.

The State Sunday School Conventional Country of the State Sunday Sunday School Conventional Country of the State Sunday tion will meet in this city on the 24th at the Second Presbyterian Church. Since Sam Jones' daughter eloped in a buggy with a young man, he has blood in his eye" against buggy riding. He warned mothers against allowing their daughters to go out in a buggy with a man in his sermon yes-terday. JACQUES.

To Censure Kennedy. WASHINGTON, Sept. 15 .- The Senate discussed the lard forfeiture all day. WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.-Mr. Enlos offered a resolution of censure on Mr. Kennedy for the speech delivered last week, reflecting on the integrity of The Switchmen's Union.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 15 -- Nearl